

Eternity Election Guide Summary

What does each party say they'll do?

	THE GREENS	Labor	LIBERAL	Australian Conservatives
Economy
Lower tax for middle income earners	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
Increase Newstart	Yes	Yes	No	No
Remove tax deduction from negatively-geared investment properties	Yes	Yes	No	No
Fully fund NDIS	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Remove cash refunds for franking credits	Yes	Yes	No	No
Environment
Implement a programme to mitigate human-caused global warming	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Phase out coal mining	Yes	Yes	No	No
Support world trade in carbon credits	Yes	Yes	No	No
Refugees and Australian Aid
Stop the boats, continue offshore processing	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
Increase Australian aid	Yes	Yes	No	No
Bring the Manus Island refugees to Australia	Yes	No	No	No
Religious Freedom
Remove exemptions for staff of religious schools in the Sex Discrimination Act?	Yes	Yes	No	No
Education
Fund only religious chaplains in public schools	No	No	Yes	Yes
Indigenous
Support the 'Uluru Statement from the Heart'	Yes	Yes	No	No
Women
Support federal push to expand access to abortion via public hospitals	Yes	Yes	No	No
Increase female political representation via gender quotas	Yes	Yes	No	No

Disclaimer: Eternity has aimed to include a cross-section of issues we believe are both relevant to Christians and which highlight a point of difference between the parties. Eternity's full Election Guide (eternitynews.com.au/election2019) goes into much more detail on party policies and other issues. Eternity has focused on these four parties to include a balance of left and right, and has included Australian Conservatives in particular because of its high-profile Christian candidates and deliberate campaigning to a "Christian" audience.

eternitynews.com.au/election2019